EXCELLENCE FOR ALL

No COE? No Problem!

What ignites your passion? Whether it's starting your own business or becoming the next top fashion designer, Shattuck-St. Mary's students have the ability to choose their own learning path with the support of our ScholarShift® program. With the ScholarShift model, students can spend more time participating in internships, creating independent studies, or even working on projects outside of classes. Students can choose from interscholastic sports teams and student-driven clubs. SSM offers a wide variety of educational and entertaining opportunities designed to encourage students to challenge themselves, explore their passions, and find their individual calling.

Some of our student-focused activities include:

- Student Government
- EDPA (Empowering Differences Promoting Awareness)
- Gold Key Club
- Wooden Soldiers (female drill team)
- Mock Trial
- QuizBowl
- The Spectator (student newspaper)
- Honors Program

Classes in the performing and visual arts:

- Dance elective courses
- Arch Dance Company
- Theater (three major productions a year)
- Players Theatre Troupe
- Middle School & Upper School Choirs
- Chamber Orchestra
- Wind Ensemble
- Painting
- Drawing
- Ceramics
- Photography
- Yearbook

weCreate® Center

The weCreate philosophy emphasizes creativity, collaboration, and innovation. In the weCreate Center, students work with faculty to pursue their individual passions. The space includes studios for editing and recording music, video production, lighting and animation, writing, fashion design, graphic design, E-Design, architecture, digital photography, and much more.

Whatever YOUR passion, you can be ALL IN at SSM!
