

CELEBRATING YOUNG MEN'S

VOICES

THE CHURCH FARM SCHOOL CHOIR

CHURCH FARM SCHOOL CHOIR MISSION

The mission of the CFS Choir is to provide young men with opportunities to experience the joy of making music in the pursuit of excellence through preparation and performance.

The CFS Choir is comprised of students in 9-12th grades and performs regularly throughout southeastern Pennsylvania. Through the years, the choir has won many first-place awards and superior ratings at music festivals in Boston, New York, Williamsburg and Toronto. Individual members regularly participate in the PMEA District, Regional, All State and MENC All Eastern Chorus Festivals. The CFS Singers is a small a capella ensemble comprised of choir members.

The CFS Choir has commissioned several works for men's choir and has also been on tour overseas to Germany and South Africa.

The Choir has performed at esteemed venues including:

- The U.S. Naval Academy Chapel
- The Philadelphia Cathedral
- The Russell Senate Building
- The National Cathedral
- Philadelphia Phillies Games
- Carnegie Hall

“CHOIR ENRICHES US THROUGH THE OPPORTUNITY TO WORK TOGETHER TO PRODUCE A SOUND THAT IS INSPIRING AND MEANINGFUL TO ALL OF US.”

EDWARD KIM '16, CFS CHOIR AND CFS SINGERS

The Church Farm School Choir is an opportunity for novice or seasoned vocalists to grow and share their talents. Students sing pieces both secular and sacred that showcase male voices.

The Choir holds free concerts in the school's historic Chapel or the new Buck Family Center for the Arts throughout the year. Come hear them for yourselves, check out our YouTube channel or schedule a tour by calling 610.363.7500 or emailing admissions@gocfs.net.
