"I chose a school that allowed me to combine surfing and my academics. My time here has allowed me to feel prepared to live on my own and for college."

-Diego G. | Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

SMALL BY DESIGN

At Besant Hill, we believe in the power of a small educational environment. Every day, we live a promise to continue the mission of our founders by working with each student as they follow their passions and strive to achieve their goals. And because we cultivate and express what is excellent in each of us, our students develop lifelong skills that allow them to adapt to change and new learning.

"I'm happy I enrolled at Besant Hill School. I had the opportunity to learn a lot of new things that helped mold my life. A highlight was undoubtedly the weekly trip to the beach for my surfing lessons."

- Pamina H. | Munich, Germany

Our learning community embraces our motto, Aún Aprendo. To that end, we offer a curriculum that inspires students to realize their educational goals. We value and encourage creativity and a creative mindset in all classes, teaching how to think, not what to think.
