

HEBRON ACADEMY

VISITOR'S GUIDE

WELCOME TO HEBRON, WELCOME TO MAINE!

Home to some of the most stunning landscapes and diverse wildlife on the Eastern Seaboard, Maine is open to explore year-round. Whether you're interested in visiting Acadia National Park for fall foliage, Portland's waterfront or Hebron's acres of trails, Maine is the perfect outdoor playground. During your visit you will also find a vibrant community of small business owners whose stores, galleries and restaurants represent the true heart of what it means to be a Mainer: hard work, fine craftsmanship and pride in representing our unique state.

RESTAURANTS

Yes, there's lobster! But there's also artisanal bread, handcrafted beer, fine cuisine, and a ridiculous number of excellent restaurants.

Portland, Maine won the Bon Appétit 2018 Restaurant City of the Year

HOTELS

Around Hebron Academy, lodging fits every style and budget. As you may expect, there are dozens of cute B&B's and historic boutique hotels scattered around the state, in addition to a few seaside resorts, chic downtown business hotels, and hip Airbnb's available.

The only problem? You'll never want to leave.

ATTRACTIONS

Maine has so many fun attractions, it's no wonder Maine is nicknamed "Vacationland." Whether you like big adventure, or just beautiful sightseeing, boating, golfing, biking, skiing, or just visiting lighthouses, antique shops, playhouses, museums and galleries; there is something for everyone.

Where to eat?

Cafe Nomad (Local)

Café Nomad is committed to buying food from local farms whenever available. They pride themselves in purchasing meat that is free of antibiotics and in purchasing fresh high quality produce. They have home made, from scratch, baked goods that are baked daily on-site. Breakfast and lunch specials are featured daily. (10 minutes from Hebron Academy)

Address: 450 Main St, Norway, ME 04268

Norway Brewing Co. (Local)

Norway Brewing Company is a family-owned microbrewery right off route 26 in Norway, Maine. They have a welcoming and family-friendly taproom open year-round, as well as a spacious beer garden during the warmer months. They brew their own beer and the food is hand-made and tailored to suit the season. Their goal is to use as many locally sourced ingredients as possible; they have reached out to fruit and vegetable growers, livestock and dairy farmers, as well as local grain and hop growers to create a network of producers who supply their chefs and brewers with raw ingredients grown right here in Maine. (10 minutes from Hebron Academy)

Address: 237 Main St, Norway, ME 04268

Eventide Oyster Co. (Portland)

Eventide marks the transition between day and night, a time that calls for refreshment and rejuvenation. Eventide Oyster Co. offers a variety of restoratives—they welcome you to join them at any time of day for satisfying food, spirits and good cheer.

A revival of the great American oyster bar, Eventide Oyster Co. offers pristine shellfish and a fresh take on classic New England fare—such proximity to the Gulf of Maine provides the sharpest seafood money can buy. A wine list chosen to complement shellfish, craft cocktails, and a warm sense of hospitality bring laid-back extravagance to Portland's Old Port. (50 minutes from Hebron Academy)

Address: 86 Middle St, Portland, ME 04101

Fore Street Rest. (Portland)

Fore Street, located one block from the waterfront in Portland's Old Port District, opened in June, 1996. Fore Street's interior surrounds a unique brick, and soapstone hearth consisting of a wood-burning oven, grill, and turnspit, visible from most tables. Hardwood and apple wood fires cook flavor the seafood, meats, game, and vegetables that have made Fore Street a New England destination. Fore Street has also been a semi-finalist for "Outstanding Restaurant" a national category from the James Beard Foundation consecutive years since 2011. (50 minutes from Hebron Academy)
